The singing by the class was excellent, being harmonious, in exact time and full of volume while the expression was a marked feature. The vocal work reflects much credit upon the class and their teacher, Mrs. Tilton, and is a demonstration of the good results being attained by lustruction in this department in the school. It is an important sunther department, evidently well looked after All of the sololats acquitted themselves in a most praiseworthy manner, and were heard with marked pleasure Mes Laura Peakes acted as accompaniet with
